

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE
DISTRICT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

United States of America

v.

Criminal No. 02-cr-96-01-PB

Brian Paquet

O R D E R

Defendant appeared for a bail revocation hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3148.

Defendant admitted the violation - consuming alcohol. He nevertheless sought bail. The consumption of alcohol on 9/5 followed alcohol on his breath on 8/27. He disregarded medical advice and checked himself out of Elliot Hospital without the recommended psychological evaluation. His impulsiveness has led to failed opportunities to comply with conditions. I find that the defendant is unlikely to abide by any condition or combination of conditions. The conditions of release are revoked.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the defendant be detained pending trial.

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

SO ORDERED.
